

Young Readers at the Weekend

SATURDAY 6TH OCTOBER

14.30-15.30

MARTIN BROWN

Event 11: St Endellion Church, Admission £6

• Do you like history that is horrible? Do you like animals that are unheard-of? To celebrate the 25th anniversary of the gruesome, grisly and downright terrifying Horrible Histories, and his new book, Lesser Spotted Animals, author and illustrator Martin Brown will present an action-packed event full of jokes, stories, live drawing and audience participation. There'll be foul fun and fabulous facts for young and old alike.

SUNDAY 7TH OCTOBER

15.00-16.00

JILL MURPHY

Event 20: Main Marquee, Admission £6

• Hold onto your broomsticks for celebrated Worst Witch author and illustrator Jill Murphy. Jill has been writing books for as long as she can remember. Her first book about Mildred Hubble, the worst student at Miss Cackle's Academy for Witches, was published when she was just 24. The series went on to win numerous awards as well as being adapted for film and TV, most recently on CBBC.
